CLUB NEWS.

The Utah Federation of Women's Clubs.

The seventh annual convention of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Congregational church on Oct. 25, 26 and 27. There will be seven regular sessions, supplemented by a reception for club women and their friends, at the Ladies' Literary club house on Thursday from 3 to 5 o'clock p. m. The local committees, the executive board of the U. F. W. C., have put forth every effort to make this convention the best in the history of club endeavor. The transportation committee has secured a general rate of one and one-half fare on all railway lines within the state. Moreover, the hospitable women of Salt Lake City are steadily working to perfect every detail that will add to the pleasure of the occasion. The programme is running over with good things. The topics for discussion along educational, industrial, art and literary lines are of exceeding interest, not only to club women but to men and women generally. The musical programme, in charge of Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson, is of par excellence and should of itself insure a large audience. None can afford to miss the evening devoted to "The Perfect House and Home," nor that to be contributed by Miss Zona Gale, Wisconsin's brilliant young journalist. Clubs desiring membership and representation will forward constitution and application, together with annual dues of $2.50, to the recording secretary, Mrs. Charles D. Moore, 333 Thirteenth East street, Salt Lake City, before Oct. 25.

Ladies' Literary Club.

The feature of the programme at the Ladies' Literary club on Friday afternoon was a debate on "Expansion vs. Anti-Expansion." Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Ritchie were for the affirmative and Mrs. Eugene Lewis and Mrs. Martha Jennings on the negative. The subject was ably handled and after the arguments closed the members entered into a discussion of the subject. The discussion was preceded by a delightful programme. It opened with the reading of three original poems by Mrs. Kelsey entitled, "The Sunset," "A Voice in the Night" and "A Fragment." Mrs. C. C. Richards followed with "The Rise of the Hopeful," an original story, and an original poem was read by Mrs. Thomas Weir. Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Stewart gave a delightful vocal number and Mrs. Igleheart read some selections from a volume of poems soon to be issued by Alfred Lambourn.

For the following week section meetings will be held as follows: The Home and Education section will meet Monday, Oct. 15, at 4 p. m. The committee on an art exhibit will report at that time. The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 16, promptly at 8 o'clock at Rowland hall. Members are requested to read "Pippa Passes" in preparation for the work of the evening. The Shakespeare section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Wednesday at 10 o'clock. The second act of Coriolanus will be studied under the direction of Mrs. Igleheart.

Nineteenth Century Club.

The work done by the Nineteenth Century club Friday consisted of the reading by Miss Searle of a well prepared paper written by Mrs. R. Searle on "The Ivens: The Great and the Terrible." "The Flight of the Kalmucks," reading by Mrs. Wedgwood, and extracts from Rambaud's "History of Russia" on the subject, "Muscovite Russia and the Renaissance," by Mrs. Schaub. Miss Dickinson reviewed the news of the week.

Club Notes.

The Reapers' club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Templeton building at 1:30.

The Cleofan will hold its weekly meetings at the office of Mrs. John Minor, in the Hooper block. On Tuesday last Mrs. Susie D. B. Wells gave an interesting paper on "England Under the Georges," giving a lengthy review of the "Stuart Period" and George I.

The Utah Women's Press club will hold a special business meeting Monday, Oct. 15, at 3:30 p. m. The members are especially requested to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Spirit of Liberty chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. C. Miller. The following programme was given:

Musical. Poetry of the Revolution, Mrs. C. E. Allen. Events in Our Colonial History, Miss Lowe. Selected reading, Mrs. Miller.

The Business Woman's club will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Oct. 16, at Madam Rooks' room, Jennings block, No. 21 West First South.

At the Reviewers' club on Monday Mrs. Hal Brown reviewed at length

Robert Grant's new book, "Unleavened Bread." The members of the club gave a very generous donation of $50 to the club kindergarten.

The Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon.

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, Oct. 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "A Talk on Books," Mrs. Hugh Park; "Book Review," "The Redemption of David Corson," Mrs. Kelsey.

Sorosis Club.

The Utah Sorosis club met at the home of President Mrs. D. D. Houtz, Wednesday afternoon, and carried out very interesting programme. Miss Bulah Bachman read the first paper, it dwelt upon the history pertaining to the rise of Canute, of Edward the Confessor, and of William the Conqueror. The paper was appreciated by the club members. After a brief recess Mrs. Emma Evans read a very interesting paper on "Kindness."

OGDEN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.) Last Tuesday a charming little tea and high five party was given by Mrs. Elliot Brown at her pretty new home on Lincoln avenue. The affair was in honor of Miss Wheeling of Salt Lake. The prize, a decorated vase, was awarded to Miss Wheeling. Those invited were Misses Ida Schanenbach, Mamie Ecklund, Ida Driver, May Driver, Eva Stahl, Kate McCormick, Dorothy Matson, Julia Wright, Nettie Boyle, Nellie Wheeling.

The Child Culture club met with Mrs. Katie Wright Oct. 5. After the regular business an entertaining paper was read by Miss Whalen on how to successfully manage a child addicted to untruthfulness. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edith Wright.

Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple the ceremony was performed uniting Rolfe Emmett and Joan W. Wedman. In the evening at the home of the bride's mother in Ogden a reception was given in their honor. Only near relatives and a few most intimate friends were present. The rooms were tastefully decorated with California flowers and the grounds with Chinese lanterns.

George L. Fretwell, formerly located at Evanston, is now in Ogden.

Christensen's dancing classes began Saturday and the opening ball of the Wednesday Night club was given Friday night.

The Columbia club has tendered the use of its rooms to the Public Library association for the purpose of giving a card party or other fete. Club members also tender their services to assist in the affair.

Parley P. Prophet of Blaine departed Wednesday for a mission in England.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pife is visiting in Salt Lake.

Mrs. A. Bristol of Evanston was an Ogden visitor last week.

Mrs. D. G. Perkins left last week for the coast on a pleasure trip.

George W. Larkin, Jr., returned Tuesday from Denver.

Mrs. E. C. Manson of Pocatello was an Ogden visitor last week.
